QUOTATIONS

“When the God you claim to love is a God that protects you from anything bad, you're not worshiping the Christian God—you're worshiping a fantasy god you've created in your mind that vaguely resembles the God of the Bible.”

—Chris Martin

“Once again, Kenya, my homeland, has been thrust into the international news headlines over the last couple of days due to the deeply painful and senseless massacre of students at the Garissa University College.... we may grieve, but we do not grieve like those without hope, and we do not fear those who can only kill the body but cannot touch the soul.”

—John Njoroge

When we say we hate the health and wealth gospel, we do not mean that we love pain and suffering. What we hate is the message that turns people away from God's plan of restoration and points them to a false gospel that can only offer a false hope."

—Ken Mbugua

"Job lived without a sense of entitlement but rather a state of grace....Since God was his greatest gift, everything else could be taken away from him and he could still bless God."

—Erik Raymond

"We will not go far astray if we approach the Bible with a humble mind and then resolve to focus on central truths. Gradually we will build up our exegetical skills by evenhanded study and a reverent, prayerful determination to become like the workman 'who correctly handles the word of truth.'"

—D.A. Carson

"Countless Christians run here or there looking for a word from the Lord while their Bibles sit on the shelf collecting dust. The reason why we have so many scrawny, malnourished Christians is because they are not being properly fed on God's Word. Give me one man who publicly and correctly exposit the Scriptures than one thousand babblers who speak of their private, untestable revelations. God's Word has always been the means by which God has fed and guided and sustained His people."

—Victor Kuligin

"What makes a leader is character. What makes a non-leader is ego."

—Ray Ortlund

"No one who is a man-pleaser preaches the whole counsel of God."

—R.C. Sproul
